Glatzova & Co. has once again been nominated for the Chambers Europe Award for Excellence 2010

Glatzova & Co. has been nominated amongst the top five Czech law firms on the shortlist of the prestigious Chambers Europe Award for Excellence 2010.

The rating agency Chambers and Partners, which each year awards prestigious Chambers Europe Award for Excellence, has nominated Glatzova & Co. amongst the top five Czech law firms. The winner will be announced on May 20, 2010 in London.

Chambers and Partners already named Glatzova & Co. the best Czech law firm in 2009. "The positive rating in 2009 has been a great motivation and appreciation of our 15 years of hard work", says founding partner of the firm, Vladimíra Glatzová. "Last year's award and this year's nomination prove our ability to continuously provide our services at a high professional level. The repeated placement on the shortlist is primarily a reflection of the satisfaction of our clients. We truly appreciate their 15 years of confidence", adds Glatzová.

Chambers and Partners is globally considered the most prestigious rating agency specialising in the legal services market. The awards reflect the excellence of the nominated firms in the applied legal areas and highlight achievements of the firms in the past 12 months. The law firms are rated in 21 jurisdictions based on an independent survey of clients and the law firms themselves. The company publishes numerous prominent rating publications, in which Glatzova & Co. has consistently high rankings.
