

PRESS RELEASE

Prague, April 23, 2009

Glatzova & Co. became the best ranked law office in the Czech Republic, in London.

Yesterday, April 22, 2009, the law firm Glatzova & Co. was awarded the Czech Republic Award for Excellence 2009 at the Chambers Europe awards ceremony in London.

The prestigious Chambers Europe Awards for Excellence 2009 were awarded on April 22, 2009 in London's Grosvenor House Hotel. Glatzova & Co. won the award from among all Czech law offices. Accepting the award were the firm's founder, Vladimíra Glatzová, and one of the new partners, Jiří Sixta. „It is an important and beautiful appreciation of our work. At the beginning of April the office celebrated its 15th anniversary. This is the most beautiful present we could have wished for”, said Vladimíra Glatzová.

The credit rating company Chambers and Partners, which handed out the award, is one of the most prestigious ratings companies in the world, specialising in the legal services market. The awards reflect the excellence of the nominated firms in the applied legal areas. Simultaneously, they highlight achievements of the firms in the past 12 months, such as significant projects, strategic development, growth or extraordinary customer service. The law firms are rated in 21 jurisdictions based on an independent survey of clients and the law firms themselves. The company publishes numerous prominent ratings publications, in which Glatzova & Co. has a consistently high ranking.
